

A

- about the authors, xxiii
 - abbreviations, xxvii
 - acknowledgements, xxi
 - Armenia, Colombia earthquake (1999)
 - creation of FOREC, 203
 - environmental management in reconstruction, 150
 - monitoring and evaluation of reconstruction, 276
 - use of ODR following, 103
 - World Bank safeguards in reconstruction, 319
 - Asian Development Bank
 - categorization of NGOs, 212
 - Gujarat, India earthquake (2001), 140
 - resettlement mitigation measures, 81
 - resettlement policy, 81
 - assessing damage and setting reconstruction policy, 23–44
 - assessment
 - Assessment and Classification of Emergencies (ACE), 25
 - building safety inspections, 43
 - communication-based assessment methodology, 55
 - community-led, 27
 - damage and loss assessment (DaLA), 27
 - detailed, 25
 - ECLAC DaLA, 27
 - habitat mapping, 42
 - household-level survey, 43
 - housing damage, 25
 - housing damage (house-to-house), 42
 - housing sector, 25, 38
 - key decisions, 24
 - local estimate of needs for shelter and settlement (LENSS), 27
 - PDNA project, 26
 - Post-Disaster Needs Assessment (PDNA), 26
 - rapid, 25
 - rights-based, 25
 - village transect, 42
- ## B
- Bam, Iran earthquake (2003)
 - classification of housing damage, 168
 - community participation in structure plan, 191
 - community-based information and communications, 53
 - coordination of NGOs, 218
 - differences in urban and rural shelter, 189
 - establishment of reconstruction Steering Committee, 205
 - Housing Foundation of the Islamic Revolution- UNDP joint housing project, 191
 - mud brick building codes, 177
 - shift from ADRRS to ODR, 101
 - use of demonstration buildings, 169
 - builders
 - availability of local skills, 165
 - familiarity with technical guidelines, 166
 - how to organize training of, 243
 - importance of developing local expertise, 240
 - involvement in infrastructure reconstruction, 137
 - knowledge of reconstruction technologies, 164
 - training in DRM, 348
 - training in the field, 245
 - training of women as builders, 248
 - using shake table tests in training, 247
 - building codes, See construction guidelines
 - addressed in Tamil Nadu, India tsunami (2004) reconstruction policy, 34
 - as element of comprehensive reconstruction plan, 115, 125
 - as instrument of DRM, 348
 - consideration in selection of reconstruction approach, 94
 - effect on construction technology, 164
 - effect on historic building conservation, 175
 - importance as construction policy instrument, 162
 - in infrastructure planning process, 136
 - in infrastructure reconstruction, 132
 - incorporating popular materials and technologies, 170
 - lack as institutional weakness in DRM, 350
 - lack of codes as factor in Bam, Iran earthquake (2003) reconstruction, 177
 - need to consider in designing training, 240
 - revising in post-disaster context, 129, 162, 164

- role of local government in defining, 113
- stakeholder participation in reform in Kenya, 170
- urgent priority in reconstruction planning timeline, 112
- building safety inspections, 43
- built environment professionals in reconstruction, 43, 131, 137, 162, 165, 175, 191, 219, 228, 240, 300

C

- Centre for Research on the Epidemiology of Disasters (CRED), 339
- civil society organizations
 - challenges in collaborating with, 214
 - defining, 213
 - formalizing collaboration with, 215
 - role in reconstruction, 214
 - types of, 213
 - typology of, 214
- communications
 - assessing cultural context, 47
 - communication needs assessment, 46
 - communication-based assessment, 46
 - communications action plan, 50
 - communications strategy, 48
 - understanding cultural factors, 57
- community organizing and participation, 183–196
 - community facilitation system, 193
 - developing community participation profile, 195
 - institutional context for, 187
 - participation tools, 188
 - stakeholder identification, 188
 - types of participation, 185
- construction guidelines, 137, 228, See building codes
 - as basis for builder training, 243
 - CSO application of, 216
 - need to include in communications plan, 35
 - use in Bam earthquake (2003) reconstruction, 19
- context for reconstruction, 7–21
- corruption risk mitigation, 285–302
 - audits, 290
 - codes of conduct, 289
 - complaint mechanisms, 292
 - construction audit methodology, 300
 - corruption risk assessment methodology, 297
 - corruption risk assessments, 289
 - governance and accountability action plan (GAAP), 289
 - governance and anticorruption (GAC) strategy, 295
 - integrity pacts, 290
 - MANGO risk assessment, 289
 - U4 Anti-Corruption Resource Centre, 289
 - UN Anti-Corruption Toolkit, 289
 - use of PEFA, 289
 - World Bank Governance and Anticorruption Strategy, 289
- COSO framework, 289
- cultural heritage conservation, 173–179

D

- DHL, 219
- disaster risk
 - disaster data interpretation, 343
 - intensive versus extensive, 342
 - poverty as factor, 342
- disaster risk assessment
 - comparing mitigation options, 349
 - in context of local development, 353
 - mitigation measures, 348
 - risk analysis methodology, 346
- disaster risk management, 345–355
 - coastal protection zone policy after Indian Ocean tsunami in Sri Lanka (2004), 352
 - community-based hazard mitigation planning, 351
 - disaster timeline, 345
 - sources of disaster data, 354
- disaster types and impacts, 339–344
 - definitions, 340
 - frequency and impact, 341
 - types and subtypes, 340
 - victims by region, 340

E

- environmental planning, 143–160
 - disaster debris management planning methodology, 153
 - environmental consequences of disasters, 144
 - environmental impact assessment, 157
 - environmental monitoring plan, 159
 - importance of trees, 150
 - managing asbestos, 148
 - post-disaster waste management, 146
 - tools for environmental planning, 147

F

- facilitation of community-based reconstruction, 193
- financial assistance
 - cash transfer system design, 228
 - grievance redressal, 230, 238
 - qualifying recipients of assistance, 229
 - restoration of livelihoods, 232
 - targeting and delivering assistance, 225
- financial resources, mobilizing, 362

G

- Global Facility for Disaster Reduction and Recovery, 208
- glossary, 361
- governance
 - six dimensions of, 30
- guiding principles
 - assessment and policy, 23
 - communication, 45
 - community organization, 183
 - community participation, 183
 - construction technology, 161
 - environmental planning, 143
 - handbook, 1
 - heritage conservation, 173
 - housing design, 161
 - information and communications technology, 253
 - infrastructure and services delivery, 131
 - land use and physical planning, 109
 - mitigating corruption, 285
 - mobilizing financial assistance, 221
 - mobilizing other assistance, 221
 - monitoring and evaluation, 269
 - partnerships, 207
 - reconstruction approaches, 93
 - reconstruction management, 197
 - relocation, 77
 - social dimension of reconstruction, 59
 - training, 239
- Gujarat, India earthquake (2001)
 - Asian Development Bank financing in reconstruction, 140
 - Bhuj planning process, 123
 - housing assistance, 69
 - infrastructure delays, 140
 - Kutch Nav Nirman Abhiyan, 217
 - reconstruction policy, 35
 - satisfaction with reconstruction approaches, 104
 - use of ADDRS, 100
 - use of ADRIS, 99
 - use of CDR, 97

H

- Habitat for Humanity
 - home repair following Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, U.S. (2005), 220
 - housing and infrastructure after Sri Lanka Indian Ocean tsunami (2004), 140
 - reconstruction after Hurricane Mitch in Honduras (1998), 83
 - supporting livelihoods after Hurricane Felix, Nicaragua (2007), 233
 - training of women masons after Indian Ocean tsunami in India (2004), 248
 - transitional shelter in Pakistan (2005), 20
 - vocational training in Lebanon (2006), 248
- housing assistance
 - as social risk management, 60
 - choice of criteria, 61
 - damage level as basis after Gujarat, India earthquake (2001), 67
 - government as insurer, 60
 - landholding as basis after Maharashtra, India earthquake (1993), 67
 - poverty level as basis after Orissa, India Super Cyclone (1999), 69
 - resolving long-standing problems, 61
 - social equity issues, 61
 - using social assessments in designing, 65

- housing design and construction technology, 161–172
- Housing Foundation of the Islamic Revolution
 - coordination of NGOs after 2003 Bam earthquake, 218
 - HF-United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) joint housing project, 101
 - role in reconstruction, 205
 - role in reconstruction task force after 2003 Bam earthquake, 205
- humanitarian agencies
 - assessment initiatives mapping, 25
 - DAC evaluation criteria, 18
 - experience with transitional shelter, 16
 - IASC cluster system and, 10
 - in response, 10
 - role in defining outline strategy, 11
 - withdrawal following disaster, 167
- Humanitarian Information Center, 28, 257
- Hurricane Mitch (1998)
 - Honduras Social Investment Fund, 70
 - infrastructure investment in Amaratoca Valley, 83
 - infrastructure investment in Nueva Choluteca, 139
 - use of CDR, 98

I

- IASC cluster system, 10
 - Cluster Working Group on Early Recovery, 211
 - early recovery activities, 11
 - emergency shelter cluster, 210
 - global cluster leads table, 210
 - IFRC as coordinator of emergency shelter cluster, 11
 - key actors, 211
- Indonesia Indian Ocean tsunami (2004)
 - community facilitation system, 193
 - community management of housing assistance, 226
 - community-based resettlement and reconstruction, 190
 - community-driven land adjudication, 121
 - effect of topographic changes on reconstruction, 86
 - environmental priorities in reconstruction, 146
 - perception of quality in UPLINK's project, 277
 - south-south partnership, 219
 - tracking beneficiary cash transfers, 262
 - use of EO technology to estimate damage, 263
- information and communications technology, 253–268
 - acquiring satellite images, 264
 - GIS and GIS data sources, 267
 - Humanitarian Information Center, 28, 257
 - infrastructure and services delivery, 131–141
 - institutional options for reconstruction management, 197–206
- international financial institutions
 - as stakeholders in response and reconstruction, 11
 - avoiding the funding gap, 16
 - mobilization of IFI resources, 223
 - organizing project monitoring information, 272
 - resettlement policies, 81
 - role in response, 7
 - timing of disaster involvement, 11
 - use of DaLA assessment methodology, 27
- International Strategy for Disaster Reduction
 - as component of UN System, 210
 - as coordination framework for disaster risk reduction, 339
 - as source of assistance with disaster plans, 29
 - collaboration in CAPRA, 262

L

- land administration reforms, 119
- land titling and property rights issues, 119
- land use and physical planning, 109–129
 - community participation in, 119
 - comprehensive planning process methodology, 125
 - key actors in planning process, 113
 - planning in urban, rural, and regional contexts, 113
 - planning in weak capacity context, 128
 - promoting DRR in planning, 119

M

- Marmara Earthquake (1999)
 - project implementation unit, 199
 - World Bank safeguards in reconstruction, 318
- materials distribution, 236
- matrix of disaster project features, 357
- microfinance in reconstruction, 232
- migrant worker remittances in reconstruction, 231

- minding the “gaps”, 16
- mobilizing financial resources and other assistance, 221–238
- monitoring and evaluation, 269–284
 - impact evaluation methodology, 278
 - social audit methodology, 282
- N
- National Institute for Disaster Management, Mozambique, 205
- Needs Assessment Task Force (NATF), 26
- nongovernmental organizations
 - challenges in collaborating with, 214
 - defining, 212
 - formalizing collaboration with, 215
 - role in response, 11
- North Pakistan earthquake (2004)
 - communications action plan, 50
 - communications strategy following, 45
 - creation of ERRA, 204
 - cultural context of, 47
 - monitoring and evaluation in, 52
 - ODR after, 96
 - role of military in, 10
 - use of transitional shelter following, 20
- note to the policy maker, ix
- note to the project manager, xiii
- O
- outline strategy definition, 11
- P
- partnerships in reconstruction, 207–220
 - CSOs, challenges in collaborating with, 214
 - CSOs, defining, 213
 - CSOs, formalizing collaboration with, 215
 - CSOs, types of, 213
 - CSOs, typology of, 214
 - GHP principles of partnership, 209
 - Global Humanitarian Platform, 209
 - IASC, 209
 - NGOs, working with, 212
 - UN System, 210
- political economy of reconstruction, 29
- process of response and reconstruction, viii
- procurement
 - as concern with NGO/CSO involvement in reconstruction, 216
 - as issue in selection of institutional option, 199
 - as opportunity for corruption, 287–289
 - characteristics of good public procurement process, 332
 - community participation in managing, 190
 - complaint mechanisms, 292
 - logistics in infrastructure projects, 138
 - of communications expertise, 51
 - of satellite imagery, 265
 - public financial management and, 223
 - risks, using a corruption risk assessment to address, 297
 - risks, using a governance and accountability action plan to address, 295
 - World Bank policies for, 329
- project financial management
 - cost of “build back better”, 225
 - tracking project funds, 224
- public financial management, 223
- R
- recommendations
 - assessment and policy, 33
 - communication, 53
 - community organizing, 190
 - community participation, 190
 - construction technology, 164
 - disaster context, 18
 - environmental management, 149
 - heritage conservation, 176
 - housing design, 162
 - information and communications technology, 261
 - infrastructure and services delivery, 139
 - land use and physical planning, 120
 - mitigating corruption, 293
 - mobilizing financial resources, 233
 - mobilizing other resources, 233
 - monitoring and evaluation, 275
 - partnerships, 217
 - reconstruction approaches, 103
 - reconstruction management, 202
 - relocation, 83
 - repair/retrofit versus demolition, 166
 - social dimension of reconstruction, 66
 - training, 246
- reconstruction approaches, 93–105
 - agency-driven reconstruction in relocated site, 99
 - agency-driven reconstruction in-situ, 98
 - cash approach, 95
 - community-driven reconstruction, 97
 - comparison of approaches, 101
 - owner-driven reconstruction, 95
- reconstruction technology
 - adapting vernacular technologies, 172
 - construction guidelines, importance of, 166
 - construction guidelines, preparation of, 129, 162
 - dhijji dewari and taq in Pakistan, 170
 - reducing housing vulnerabilities, 167
 - repair/retrofit versus demolition, 166
 - vernacular technology debate, 166
- reconstruction policy
 - challenges in defining, 30
 - content, 31
 - defining, 29
 - Gujarat, India earthquake (2001), 35
 - parameters of, 31
 - Tamil Nadu tsunami (2004), 33
- relocation, 77–91
 - comparison of development-related and disaster-related displacement, 81
 - resettlement plan methodology, 87
 - risks involved, 79
 - success factors, 80
 - typology of displacement, 78
 - versus resettlement, 81
- resources
 - assessment and policy, 37
 - communication, 54
 - community organizing, 192
 - community participation, 192
 - construction technology, 171
 - context for reconstruction, 21
 - disaster risk management, 353
 - disaster types and impacts, 344
 - environmental planning, 152
 - heritage conservation, 179
 - housing design, 171
 - information and communications technology, 263
 - infrastructure and services delivery, 141
 - land use and physical planning, 124
 - mitigating corruption, 294
 - mobilizing financial assistance, 235
 - mobilizing other assistance, 235
 - monitoring and evaluation, 3277
 - partnerships, 220
 - reconstruction approaches, 105
 - reconstruction management, 206
 - relocation, 86
 - social dimension of reconstruction, 69
 - training, 249
 - World Bank emergency operations, 308
- role of stakeholders
 - affected population, 9
 - bilateral and multilateral donor organizations, 11
 - government, 9
 - humanitarian community, 10
 - international financial institutions, 11
 - national and international NGOs, 11
 - national military, 10
 - Red Cross Movement, 11
 - United Nations agencies, 11
 - Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, 17
- S
- safeguard policies for World Bank reconstruction policies, 313–322
- settlement options
 - displaced population, 13
 - non-displace population, 14
- Shelter Advisory Group, 218

Shelter Centre
 collaboration with OCHA on transitional settlement, 211 in Emergency Shelter Cluster, 210 source of information on post-disaster physical planning, 111 source of transitional shelter information, 21 social assessment methodology, 74 social protection system design, 70 social safety nets, 70
 Sri Lanka Indian Ocean tsunami (2004)
 coastal protection zone, 352
 IKONOS imagery of, 262
 impact of relocation, 84
 price increases following, 235 provision of infrastructure in Mandana, 140 use of ODR, 96
 waste management, 152
 World Bank safeguards in reconstruction, 318

T

technical issues
 assessment and policy, 25
 communication, 46
 community organizing, 185
 community participation, 185
 construction technology, 164
 environmental planning, 145
 heritage conservation, 174
 housing design, 162
 information and communications technology, 256
 infrastructure and services delivery, 133
 land use and physical planning, 111
 mitigating corruption, 287
 mobilizing financial assistance, 222
 mobilizing other assistance, 222
 monitoring and evaluation, 270
 partnerships, 208
 reconstruction approaches, 94
 reconstruction management, 198
 relocation, 78
 repair/retrofit versus demolition, 166
 social dimension of reconstruction, 60
 training, 240
 temporary shelter distinction from transitional shelter, 15 use following L'Aquila earthquake (2009), 20 tenancy categories number of tenancy categories, 117 party responsible for reconstruction by, 59 suitable reconstruction approach by, 102 training in reconstruction, 239–249 transitional shelter, 14–16 distinction from temporary shelter, 15 evaluation of use following North Pakistan earthquake (2005), 20 evaluation of use following tsunami in Indonesia (2004), 19 strengths of, 15
 weaknesses of, 15

U

UN-HABITAT
 identification of land tenancy situations after Ica/Pisco earthquake (2007), 65 land management analysis following Mozambique floods (2001), 121 member of IASC, 209
 partner in Emergency Shelter Cluster, 210 use of CDR after Indian Ocean tsunami in Indonesia (2004), 97
 United Nations
 Anti-Corruption Toolkit, 289 effort to standardize assessments, 25
 Hyogo Framework for Action, 339
 role in response, 7
 role of Resident Representative, 11
 United Nations Development Programme
 CWGER, 26
 member of IASC, 209
 universal design
 use of principles in reconstruction, 162
 Urban Poor Linkage Indonesia (UPLINK), 219, 277 urban reconstruction, 12
 identifying eligible families in urban setting, 67 infrastructure delays after Gujarat, India earthquake (2001), 140 infrastructure reconstruction challenges, 138

planning issues, 112, 114 planning process in Bhuj after Gujarat, India earthquake (2001), 123 qualifying recipients in urban environments, 230 recycling of disaster debris after Northridge, California earthquake (1994), 151 remote sensing in, 260
 RHP created to manage reconstruction after Mexico City earthquake (1985), 204 role of Iloilo City Urban Poor Network, 85 Skopje, FYR Macedonia earthquake (1963), 18 urban and rural shelter approaches following Bam, Iran earthquake (2003), 19 urban issues in impact evaluation, 280 urban reconstruction in four towns after Gujarat, India earthquake (2001), 37 urban tenure security after Mexico City earthquake (1985), 122 urban transitional shelter after Bam, Iran earthquake (2003), 191 urban versus rural waste components, 146

V

vernacular building as consideration in housing assistance scheme, 63
 as cultural heritage, 175 disaster may affect public perception of value, 58 environmental impact of, 163 incentives for conservation, 175 incorporation in builder training programs, 245 loss following Bam, Iran earthquake (2003), 177 organizations involved in adaptation, 172

W

World Bank
 assessment, involvement in PDNA project, 26 assessment, satellite data use in PDNA, Namibia floods (2009), 261 assessment, spatial team, 258 assessment, use of ECLAC DaLA, 27 assistance with design of social protection systems, 70 assistance with development communications, 47 environmental policy, elements of World Bank environmental assessment, 314 environmental policy, environmental and social safeguard policies, 313 environmental policy, ESSAF preparation challenges, 317 environmental policy, preparation of ESSAF, 317 EU/WB/UN Joint Declaration, 208 financial management, availability of PEFA, 289
 governance and accountability action plan (GAAP), 289
 governance and anticorruption (GAC) strategy, 295 operational policy, financial management in emergency operations (OP/BP 10.02), 323–328 operational policy, procurement in World Bank reconstruction projects (OP/BP 11.0), 329–335 operational policy, resettlement OP/BP 4.12, 81 operational policy, response to crises and emergencies (OP/BP 8.00), 305–312 operational policy, response to crises and emergencies, processing steps, 309 operational policy, safeguard policies for World Bank reconstruction projects (OP/BP 4.01), 313–322 procurement, country procurement assessment, 330 procurement, procurement assessment process, 332 procurement, procurement in emergency operations, 334 project audits, 292
 project cycle, 323
 project, Argentina Urban Flood Prevention and Drainage Project (2006), 95 project, Bam Earthquake Emergency Reconstruction project (2004), 218 project, CDD programs as source of reconstruction funds, 223 project, Community-based Settlement Reconstruction and Rehabilitation Project (2006), 190 project, Emergency Tsunami Reconstruction Project (2005), 67 project, Georgia Cultural Heritage Project (1998), 178 project, Gujarat Emergency Earthquake Reconstruction Project (2002), 69 project, implementation completion reports, 271 project, Lijiang earthquake (1996), 178 project, Maharashtra Emergency Earthquake Rehabilitation Project (1994), 67, 191 project, Mexico Reconstruction and Rehabilitation Project (1985), 122 project, Urban Poverty Project (2002), 190
 role in response, 7
 slum upgrading, impact evaluation for, 279
 slum upgrading, survey instrument for, 281 support for ODR, 96
 typology of civil society organizations, 214 World Habitat Research Centre
 evaluation of post-tsunami reconstruction in Sri Lanka, 84 evaluation of post-tsunami reconstruction in Aceh, 86

